Eva LaFollette is the counselor from Youth Eastside Services that is located at the Old Fire House Teen Center. She provides information and referral, crisis support, and general counseling to any participant that comes to the teen center. She is really "cool" so stop by and say "Hi".

Redmond Youth Partnership Advisory Committee

Who says youth do not have a voice in Redmond?! The Redmond Youth Partnership Advisory Committee (RYPAC) is the voice for youth which is made up of youth and adults who help shape programs for our community. RYPAC is a unique board made up of youth and adults who focus on three areas of interest: recreation, youth voice, and service. With the help of the RYPAC coordinator, the committee creates, implements, and supports programs they feel best represents the needs and interests of Redmond's youth. The commitment is only a few hours a month so come and get involved in being an active part of your community. RYPAC is open to youth ages 13-19 and adults who reside, work, or attend school in Redmond.

If you are interested in becoming a part of this group please call 425-556-2358 or email rypac@redmond.gov for more information.

Be a part of the change! Get involved in RYPAC!
